

Nevada Alliance for Student Diversity

allianceforstudentdiversity.org

Nevada Alliance for Student Diversity promotes the equality of gender diverse, racially diverse, and neurodiverse students in Nevada through family engagement, community awareness, and educational support.

Nevada Bully Free Zone

morningsidecenter.org

The Bully Free Zone website is designed to assist students, parents, and school staff with bully prevention methods based on the actual or perceived age, race, color, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, religion, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical attributes, physical or mental disability of a person, sex, language, legal status, or any other distinguishing characteristics. The resources and information included in this website is structured to be easy to use for everyone.

Nevada Parents Educating Parents (NVPEP)

nvpep.org

As Nevada's statewide Parent Center, NVPEP provides education, empowerment, and encouragement to families of children and youth with disabilities, including behavioral healthcare needs. Call to learn more about the options families have available to address concerns about bullying and create an environment where children can feel safe and successful in school. (702) 388-8899.

Not In Our Town: Not In Our Schools!

niot.org/nios

Not In Our School is a program that creates safe, accepting, and inclusive school communities. Not In Our School provides training, films, lesson plans, and resources that inspire students to take the lead in standing up to bullying and intolerance in their schools.

Operation Respect

operationrespect.org

Operation Respect seeks to assure each child and youth a respectful, safe, and compassionate climate of learning where their academic, social, and emotional development can take place free of bullying, ridicule, and violence.

PACER's National Bullying Prevention Center

pacer.org/bullying

PACER recognizes bullying as a serious community topic that can impact education, physical and emotional health, and the safety and well-being of students. The website includes videos, toolkits, posters, and handouts.

Stop Bullying

stopbullying.gov

The StopBullying.org website contains information for each state's bullying/cyberbullying based on the actual or perceived age, race, color, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, religion, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical attributes, physical or mental disability of a person, sex, language, legal status, or any other distinguishing characteristics or background of a person. Here you will find prevention strategies, policies, laws, and resources for parents, educators, communities, and students.

Stop Bullying Now

stopbullyingnow.com

Stop Bullying Now is a resource to assist individuals in decreasing bullying and aid children and teens who have been bullied based on actual or perceived age, race, color, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, religion, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical attributes, physical or mental disability of a person, sex, language, legal status, or any other distinguishing characteristics or background of a person.

Vegas PBS

pbs.org/parents/talking-about-racism

The Vegas PBS website provides tips and resources to help you have a meaningful conversation with young children about race, racism, and being anti-racist.

Welcoming Schools: A project of the Human Rights Campaign Foundation

welcomingschools.org

Welcoming Schools, a project of the Human Rights Campaign Foundation, offers a Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender inclusive method to address family diversity, gender stereotyping, bullying, and name-calling in K-5 learning settings.

The Trevor Project

thetrevorproject.org

The Trevor Project is a national organization that provides crisis intervention, suicide prevention, and community resources to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning (LGBTQ) young people under 25. Call 1-866-488-7386 or text 'START' to 678-678.

In accordance with NRS 388.1341 and CCSD Policy 5137:
Safe and Respectful
Learning Environment:
Discrimination Based on Race, Bullying, or Cyberbullying,
the following is a list
of resources in the community to assist your child.

Make a report / Haga un reporte:
Free SafeVoice Mobile App
Download from Apple or Android store
Hotline: 1-833-216-7233
www.safevoicenv.org

RESOURCE LIST

Pursuant to NRS 388.1341 and CCSD Policy 5137, the District has provided a list of resources that may be available in the community to assist a student who is involved in a reported violation of NRS 388.135. This is not an all-inclusive list. The District does not endorse any of the companies or services included in the resource list. The District is not responsible for providing the resources to the student or ensuring the student receives the resources.

Advancing Adult Compassion Resilience: A Toolkit For Parents and Caregivers compassionresiliencetoolkit.org/parents-caregivers

This toolkit offers free information, activities, and resources for parents and caregivers to understand, recognize, and manage the experience of compassion fatigue and to increase compassion resilience as they build skills related to parenting.

Anti-Defamation League (ADL): "No Place for Hate"

lasvegas.adl.org

ADL's mission is to combat racism, anti-Semitism, prejudice, and hate in our community and to bring awareness to its citizens. "No Place for Hate" helps to educate on how to reduce bullying/cyberbullying and all forms of harassment.

The Bully Project

specialneeds.thebullyproject.com/toolkit

This toolkit contains a set of resources to assist people when confronting the bullying of children with special needs. Parents begin by reading the Top Ten Facts about bullying and children with special needs and learn how to provide support.

Care Solace

caresolace.com/ccsd

Care Solace helps individuals find mental health care and substance use treatment. Their multilingual and culturally sensitive Care Companion team is available 24x7x365 to quickly connect individuals to verified community providers, regardless of need. Students, staff, and families can access Care Solace services by calling (888) 515-0595 at any time. Support is available in 200+ languages.

The Center: PIVOT

thecenterlv.org/youth

Turning Points for LGBTQIA+ children and families is a program created and facilitated by The Center of Las Vegas. The goal of PIVOT is to create a SAFE SPACE that provides community education and support for every family member.

Cyberbullying Research Center

cyberbullying.org

The Cyberbullying Research Center offers information regarding cyberbullying among adolescents.

Department of Justice: Community Relations Services

www.justice.gov/crs

The Community Relations Service (CRS), a component of the Department of Justice (DOJ), serves as "America's Peacemaker" for communities in conflict by mediating disputes and enhancing community capacity to independently prevent and resolve future conflicts.

Eyes on Bullying

eyesonbullying.org

The Eyes on Bullying website provides a comprehensive toolkit for identifying the early signs of bullying by providing support for parents and caregiving staff with the goal of bullying prevention.

Family Resource Centers (FRC)

dhhs.nv.gov/programs/frcfamily_resource_center

The Family Resource Centers (FRC) case management for individuals and families in need of assistance in accessing services and programs that will strengthen and support the family. FRC emphasizes community-based collaborative services that are culturally competent, accessible, and flexible.

Federal Bureau of Investigation: Safe Online Surfing (FBI-SOS)

sos.fbi.gov

The FBI Safe Online Surfing (FBI-SOS) program is a nationwide initiative to educate children about the dangers they face on the Internet to help prevent crimes against children. It promotes cyber citizenship among students by engaging them in a fun, age-appropriate, online program where they learn how to be safe and responsible using the Internet.

The Gay, Lesbian, Straight Education Network (GLSEN)

glsen.org

GLSEN works to ensure that LGBTQIA+ students can learn and grow in a school environment free from bullying and harassment. Through educational resources for young people, families, and educators, GLSEN's goal is to create a safe and affirming environment all youth deserve. GLSEN can assist in connecting homeless youth, transgender young people of color, and any youth in need to local resources they need.

The Harbor: A Safe Place for Guidance

theharborlv.com

The Harbor provides assessments to youth at no charge to families. The assessment process gives juveniles and families the opportunity to provide a comprehensive description of their unique family structure. The assessment aims to identify the presenting issue's origin and provide service referrals to address the concern.

Hazel Health Care

my.hazel.co/ccsd

Hazel Health has partnered with the Clark County School District to expand student health services at no cost to families. When students need help, Hazel Health can offer same-day care. Hazel Health's expert therapists can assist with stress, bullying, relationship issues, anxiety, depression, grief, and trauma. Hazel Health can provide referrals to mental health services ensuring children receive the long-term support they need. Contact Hazel at (702) 718-0123.

KnowBullying App

store.samhsa.gov/apps/knowbullying

The KnowBullying app has simple conversation starters to begin the dialogue that builds strong relationships and prevents bullying and cyberbullying. The KnowBullying app features bullying prevention tips, bullying warning signs, reminders to talk with your child, social media options, and a section for educators.

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline:

1-800-273-8255

suicidepreventionlifeline.org

No matter what problems you are dealing with, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline wants to help you. Support is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.