

CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT REGULATION

3211

INTERNAL SERVICE FUND

- I. The Board of School Trustees directs the establishment of an Internal Service Fund. The Internal Service Fund shall be utilized for the following purposes.
 - A. A separate account in the Internal Service Fund shall be used as a fund for self-insurance from which payments will be made for claims for losses of District property, liability claims, and costs and claims for the District's program of self-insured workers' compensation.
 - B. A separate account in the Internal Service Fund shall be used to reflect the costs of the District's printing and graphic arts production for service to the District's schools and other operations.
 - C. With Board approval, other accounts may be established in the Internal Service Fund to reflect those operations which constitute internal services, the costs of which are charged to the various divisions on a cost-reimbursement basis.
