

Clark County School District
Research, Accountability, and Innovation Division

The mission of the Research, Accountability, and Innovation Division is to advance the capacity of the learning community to increase student achievement and to affect school improvement.