

NEWS & NOTES

Week of July 14-18, 2008

A weekly update of current news and events in the Clark County School District

Monday, July 14, National Merit Scholarship Winners were announced on Monday and these distinguished high school graduates from seven Clark County School District high schools will receive scholarships for undergraduate study.

Wednesday, July 16, 10 a.m. The annual All-Star Legacy Project is part of the NBA Cares Reading Event at Mabel Hoggard ES. Players to read, have lunch and interact with the children at Mabel Hoggard Math/Science Magnet School.

Wednesday, July 16, 9 a.m. Change in Board Meeting Dates – Trustees approved a change in 2008 board meeting dates. The work session meeting previously scheduled July 14 has been moved to Wednesday, July 16, in the boardroom of the Education Center, 2832 E. Flamingo Rd. The public is encouraged to attend.

Wednesday, July 16, 2 p.m. The Jr. NBA/WNBA Clinic will take to the court at the Thomas & Mack on the campus of UNLV to teach children the fundamentals of basketball.

Ongoing- Summer Fun Learning Activities were recently mailed to CCSD households. The activities suggest summertime educational opportunities for students based on grade level. The mailers aim to help families prepare for the next school year in fun and interesting ways.

For more information about any of the above events, please call the Clark County School District's Communications Office, 799-5304 or check out www.ccsd.net.

###