

CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
Michael T. Rodriguez, (702) 799-5304

May 15, 2009

Clark County schools receive more than $30,000 in grant funds Students at 11 schools will benefit through additional instructional materials

LAS VEGAS – Students at 12 Clark County School District schools will have additional learning opportunities thanks to grant funds provided by the Nevada Public Education Foundation and Wells Fargo Bank.

The instructional learning materials purchased with the grant funds vary by school, but all of the materials assist students in developing life skills and expanding their knowledge in the area of financial literacy. Schools receiving the grant funds include:

J.L. Bowler ES	$3,000	Classroom technology
Canyon Springs HS	$2,166	Computers, supplies, books
Desert Rose HS	$2,600	Computer software, math manipulatives
Gragson ES	$4,594	Math & finance materials
Indian Springs MS	$1,262	Classroom technology, math materials
Lowman ES	$2,972	Finance, money management materials
McCaw ES	$2,993	Finance, money management materials
Petersen PDS	$3,000	Computer software, ELL materials
Squires ES	$600	Books, literacy materials
Tobler ES	$3,000	Finance, money management materials
Virgin Valley ES	$3,000	Classroom technology, math materials
Western HS	$3,000	Computer software, supplies

(ES – Elementary School, MS – Middle School, HS – High School, PDS – Professional Development School)

“We are grateful to the Nevada Public Education Foundation and Wells Fargo Bank for its support of our schools, students and teachers,” said Lauren Kohut-Rost, Clark County School District deputy superintendent of instruction. “Their continued community involvement helps provides a positive learning environment for our students and helps foster academic achievement.”

For more information about the Clark County School District, visit www.ccsd.net.

###