

NEWS RELEASE

ARBOR VIEW HIGH SCHOOL AGGIE BASEBALL TEAM

Contact: Chris Martinez, Head Baseball Coach
743-6603 or 799-6660

Friday, Sept. 25, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Arbor View High School to Host Inaugural Holiday Baseball Camp Youth Ages 6-18 Invited to Participate Dec. 12

Arbor View High School, located at 7500 Whispering Sands, in the northwest part of the Las Vegas Valley, is hosting its inaugural holiday baseball camp for youth ages 6-18 on Saturday, Dec. 12, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Registration will begin sharp at 8 a.m.

Participants will learn the fundamentals, develop and refine skills, showcase their talents, and ask questions from experts in the field. Participants will also receive a camp t-shirt and the opportunity to meet with and be evaluated by the Arbor View High School baseball coaching staff, Major League Baseball scouts from the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and Baltimore Orioles, coaches from UNLV and CSN, 4 minor league baseball players, 3 current Division I college players, and 10 current/former junior college players.

Participants need to bring the following to camp:

- Baseball or other athletic clothing, including baseball cap and tennis shoes or cleats
- Baseball glove
- Baseball bat, batting gloves and helmet (if you have one)
- Catcher's gear (catchers only)
- Water bottle

Cost is $50 cash or $60 check or money order made payable to Arbor View HS Baseball.

Registration forms are available at <http://www.leaguelineup.com/welcome.asap?url=aggiesbaseball>.

For more information, please contact Chris Martinez, Head Baseball Coach at Arbor View High School, at 743-6603 or 799-6660.

-end-