FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Light Up the Cultural Corridor with December to Remember

Holiday events on December 5 open month-long program in Downtown Las Vegas

November 10, 2009 – LAS VEGAS – The Cultural Corridor in Downtown Las Vegas proudly presents its annual December to Remember event, celebrating the holiday season with cultural diversity, beginning with a day-long festival of family activities, art, music, food and fun on Saturday, December 5.

The Cultural Corridor, located on Las Vegas Boulevard between Bonanza Road and Washington Avenue, is a nonprofit coalition of seven institutions: Cashman Center, Las Vegas Natural History Museum, Las Vegas Library, Lied Discovery Children's Museum, Neon Museum, Old Las Vegas Mormon Fort State Historic Park and Reed Whipple Cultural Center. December to Remember is the Corridor's annual holiday celebration, a month-long program offering ongoing exhibits, performances, films, special events and hands-on activities that show how the diverse cultures of the world celebrate this special time of year.

Please see the attached schedule of events for Saturday, December 5. More refreshments and activities will be available throughout the day along with plenty of free parking. Admission to events and performances vary by institution.

The December to Remember opening event is sponsored by Mix 94.1 FM and KLAS-TV Channel 8. For more information, visit www.culturalcorridorvegas.org.
