

STUDENT ACTIVITY IDEAS AND RESOURCES

We've unearthed a few student activities and resources for consideration and/or adaptation.

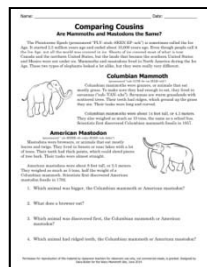

Grades K-2

- Fossil Finders
- What's for Dinner
- Mammoth Color by Numbers
- I Am Not a Dinosaur Animal Facts
- Ice Age Syllables

Grades 3-5

- Bone Up On Fossils
- Ice Age Investigation
- Pleistocene Food Scene
- Measuring Mammoths
- Columbian Mammoths: Giants of the Ice Age

Grades 6-8

- Comparing Cousins: Are Mammoths and Mastodons the Same?
- Decoding Names
- Charting Chompers: A Venn Diagram Exercise
- Meals for Mammoths

High School

- Taphonomy Lab

Images

- Ice Age Mammals
- Other Resources

To access these resources and additional information, please visit the Tule Springs Fossil Beds National Monument Resources for Teachers page:

<http://www.nps.gov/tusk/learn/education/index.htm>

Additional Sites for Further Information/Teacher Resources:

- National Park Service Washington Office Education Page:
<https://www.nps.gov/subjects/fossils/outreach-materials.htm>
- U.S. Geologic Survey Teacher Resources Page:
<https://education.usgs.gov/secondary.html>
- John Dey Fossil Beds National Monument Education Page:
<https://www.nps.gov/joda/learn/education/index.htm>
- Smithsonian Natural History Museum Classroom Resources Page:
https://naturalhistory.si.edu/education/classroom_resources.html
- University of California Museum of Paleontology Education Resources Page:
<http://www.ucmp.berkeley.edu/education/teachers.php>
- General Paleontology Resources by Ewan Wolff, Montana State University:
<http://paleoportal.org/index.php?globalnav=audience§ionnav=k16>