

8th Grade Back On Track

Four schools provide full-time instruction for students who have not met Nevada middle school promotion requirements or are high school students at risk for dropping out.

Students eligible for this program include:

credit deficient high school students, 15-year old middle school students, and other students who have experienced challenges in comprehensive secondary school settings.

The schools are:

Burk, Cowan, Jeffrey, and Morris.