

Filing a worker's compensation claim

Key events of a claim

Employee seeks medical treatment

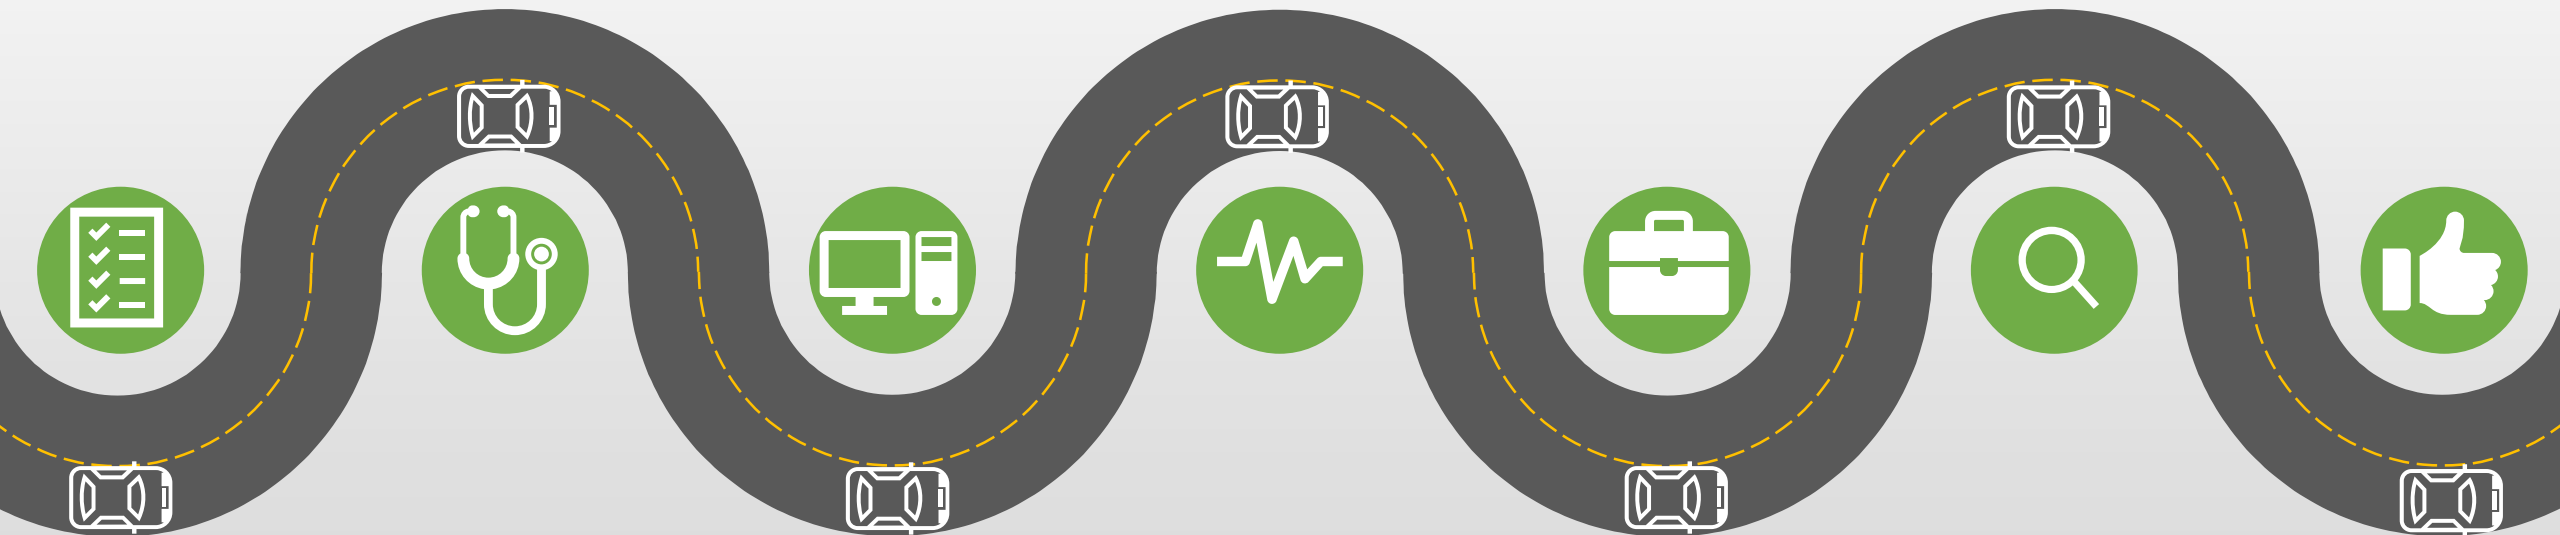

Complete Form C-4 with diagnosis.
Doctor sends to worker's compensation office. (90 days to seek treatment)

Employee receives work status from doctor

Full duty release, restrictions, or totally disabled

TPA determines coverage

30 days to make determination of acceptance or denial of claim

Employee gets injured

Complete Form C-1, supervisor signs, and emails to workcomp@nv.ccsd.net (7 days)

WC claim is entered

Third-party administrator (TPA) creates claim. C-3 signed by employer (6 days)

Work status?

Can employee work within physical restrictions? If employee has to miss time complete leave choice form

Site and TPA work to conclude treatment

Employee receives medical treatment until released by doctor.