

To the Proud Parents/Guardians of a Senior,

On behalf of (name of high school) counseling department, please accept our congratulations on your student's accomplishments in high school! We know that a student's academic success must be supported by parent/guardian involvement. We thank you for being there for your student.

As your student embarks on the next journey in life, we want to remind you of some last-minute items to consider. Below is a To-Do List of things to consider when a final decision is reached regarding which college to attend.

- _____ Notified the college you will be attending
- _____ Made arrangements for final transcript to be sent to the college/university and the NCAA (if the student will participate in college athletics)
- _____ Paid registration fees
- _____ Paid tuition deposit (if required)
- _____ Paid dorm deposit (if required)
- _____ Completed all paperwork for roommate selection
- _____ Determined Meal Plan
- _____ Accepted any scholarships
- _____ Planned to complete the Millennium Scholarship Packet over the summer
- _____ Completed all financial aid paperwork
- _____ Planned a budget for the school year
- _____ Made sure all bank accounts are in order
- _____ Applied for a credit card (if necessary)
- _____ Determined form of communication, i.e. cell phone, email
- _____ Inquired about Math/English Placement exams that may be required for enrollment
- _____ Read books on how to survive in college
- _____ Registered for fall college courses
- _____ Checked with your college for immunization records that may be required for enrollment
- _____ Enrolled in Freshmen Orientation Session (may involve going to campus earlier)
- _____ Made travel arrangements
- _____ Wrote thank you notes to people who helped through the college and scholarship Application process

Enjoy the last month of high school with your student! You both deserve it!
