PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD

Jose Solorio, former Board of School Trustee and former AZAC member, stated that he knew that AZAC members do their best to do what is in the best interest of the students and the community. He requested that AZAC keep that in mind for this area's current and future students. Mr. Solorio said to remember all students including those that are behind. He said what is really important in our district is to get funding and repairs for all old schools and to get new schools built in our district.

INTRODUCTIONS

Rick Baldwin introduced Attendance Zone Advisory Commission (AZAC) commissioners and Clark County School District staff present.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Rick Baldwin also reviewed the AZAC's proposals to adjust the attendance zone boundaries of Duanue D. Keller Junior High School and Dr. William H. "Bob" Bailey, Jim Bridger, John C. Fremont, Carroll M. Johnston, K.O. Knudson, Jerome D. Mack, Roy W. Martin, Mario C. and JoAnne Monaco, Dell H. Robison, J.D. Smith and Ed Von Tobel Middle Schools.

PUBLIC INPUT

A large group of teachers from John C. Fremont Middle School protested about temporarily closing Fremont Middle School, losing the Professional Development status, becoming a full magnet, and losing their jobs.

Several parents, grandparents, students, and teachers from K. O. Knudson Middle School expressed their concerns for the reassignment and the possibilities that they may lose magnet seats and special programs. Many wanted K. O. Knudson Middle School to be converted to a full magnet school.
